

Synopsis

A snapshot of the chapter

This chapter begins with Jesus going into the wilderness. He is there for forty days during which he ate nothing. At the end of that time, the devil came to him and approached him with three specific temptations. Jesus did not give in and responded each time with Scripture. Jesus then went into Galilee and taught in the synagogues. He returned to His hometown of Nazareth and read a prophecy from Isaiah. When the people perceived that He was applying this writing to Himself, they became angry and tried to harm Him. He then went to Capernaum where He did many miracles. Then He went to other cities preaching in the synagogues.
