

Synopsis

A snapshot of the chapter

Jesus sent out seventy others into the cities of Galilee to heal the sick and to announce that the kingdom had come near to them. They were to go in pairs without provisions and depend on the people to provide for them. Those who would not receive them would be cursed. They returned overjoyed by the response. After that, a lawyer came to Jesus and asked what to do to inherit eternal life. Jesus asked him what the Law said. It said to love God and neighbor. Jesus then told him the parable of the Good Samaritan. Jesus went to the house of Mary and Martha. Martha was distracted with her serving duties but Mary sat at Jesus' feet and listened to His words. Mary had chosen the better thing to do.

Observation—What do you see?

Important Person(s):

Main Event(s):

Study Questions:

- 1. Why were the seventy told not to take extra provisions with them?*
- 2. What lesson does Jesus use cities to illustrate?*
- 3. What lesson was necessary for the seventy to learn after their return to Jesus?*
- 4. Why was it important for the lawyer to properly interpret what the law said about loving God and loving your neighbor?*
- 5. Is serving important? How then did Mary choose better than Martha did?*

Questions:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.