

Synopsis

A snapshot of the chapter

After the decision was made to take Paul to Rome, the journey began. They sail on a ship of Adramyttium from Caesarea to Myra (1-5). Then they sail on an Alexandrian ship from Myra until the shipwreck in Malta (6-44). Paul warned that travel was dangerous at that time, but he was ignored (9-12). When the storm came up, they tried desperately to secure the ship but their efforts were to no avail. An angel appeared to Paul telling him not to be afraid because he would be brought before Caesar in Rome. The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners, lest any escape, but the centurion wanted to save Paul and so all escaped safely to land. Paul spoke three times in this chapter (27:10; 21-26; 31; and 33-34).

Observation—What do you see?

Important Person(s):

Main Event(s):

Study Questions:

1. Who traveled with Paul on the trip to Rome?
2. Why was Paul prompted to warn them of a storm on the sea?
3. How did Paul help during the storm?
4. How many persons were on the ship and how many escaped the storm?
5. Why did the soldiers want to kill the prisoners?

Questions:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.